Pallone to speak on sexual orientation at NDSCS

WAHPETON — Dave Pallone, former professional umpire and author, will speak at North Dakota State College of Science on Wednesday about issues and challenges surrounding the reality of sexual orientation.

Pallone's best-selling autobiography, Behind the Mask: My Double Life in Baseball, offers a revealing look at baseball through the eyes of a gay man. Since his years as a professional umpire, Pallone has dedicated his life to educating and enlightening people about sexual orientation.

Pallone will be at the Stern Cultural Center on Wednesday at 3 and 7 p.m. with his presentation, "Who's Really on First." In this program, he sheds light on the not-so-openly-discussed topic of sexual orientation.

This event is sponsored by the NDSCS Diversity Council and Campus Activities Board. Students, faculty, staff and community members are invited to attend.
